Parent Pledge: any student falling behind in English and Maths will receive timely and evidence-based support to enable them to close the gaps in their progress.

A student's progress is assessed and it becomes clear they're struggling

The school identifies teaching adjustment or evidence-based support to help

The student receives evidence-based support to compleme nt the high-quality curriculum

Parents are kept up to date on student progress The student's progress is monitored and provision adjusted accordingly

The school draws on specialist or multi-agency support as needed.

